Calls of Interest

Offense: Assist other Agency
Date: 01.05.14
Time: 0610 hours
Location: 16300 blk San Pedro

A HCV officer was dispatched to assist a HPPD officer on a traffic stop. Upon arrival, contact was made with the officer who related that he had stopped a vehicle with 3 individuals inside and just wanted back up while he conducted a search of their vehicle. The HPPD officer further stated that the operator was leaving an area of recent vehicle burglaries and that the license plate on her vehicle had been purposely obscured and the male passenger had a screwdriver inside of his pocket. The HCV officer remained on scene until no longer needed. The HPPD officer obtained several paper documents, ID cards and car manuals that did not belong to the operator. The HPPD officer secured the items found and obtained identifying information on the 3 individuals. The HCV officer resumed patrol.
