Offense: Disturbance

Date: 01.20.13

Time: 0350 hours

Location: 200 blk Crest Trail

Officers were dispatched to a residence for a report of a party with loud music and underage drinking. The officers arrived at the location and knocked on the front door. While they were waiting, they could see a lot of people inside the residence. The officers did not observe anyone inside drinking any alcoholic beverages. The adult daughter of the homeowner came to the door and an officer explained to her why they were there. When the daughter opened the door, officers did not smell an odor of any alcoholic beverages. The officer asked to speak to the homeowner but she was out of town. The daughter was asked to keep the noise down.
