An officer saw a vehicle pull into the parking lot of a closed business. The officer contacted the occupants of the vehicle. The male driver stated that he and his girlfriend were having an argument over an event that had occurred earlier in the evening. The officer obtained identification from both parties and asked the female what was going on. The female was highly intoxicated and stated that nothing was wrong, and stated she was not driving. The officer asked her multiple times if everything was okay. Each time she stated she was fine and nothing was going on. The officer did a computer check on both occupants. The female was showing to have two active warrants out of the San Antonio Municipal Court. She became increasingly belligerent and used profanities toward officers. The female continued to escalate her behavior and eventually said to the officer "just take me to jail." The officer placed the female under arrest and secured her in the back of the patrol car.
