An officer was dispatched to assist EMS. A male was complaining of chest pains. EMS checked out the male but he was not transported to the hospital. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Information

Date: 02.14.14

Time: 1757 hours

Location: 500 blk West Bitters Road

Officers were dispatched a local restaurant for a possible disturbance. The manager reported a cook's girlfriend had been calling the restaurant asking for the cook. Apparently the girlfriend had shown up at another restaurant earlier in the evening and was looking for the employee. The restaurant was in the middle of a dinner service, so the officers were only able to briefly speak with the cook. He gave the officers his girlfriend's information and provided a picture of her from his phone. An officer told the manager and employee to contact police if the girlfriend showed up at the restaurant.

Offense: Possession of a Controlled Substance

Date: 02.14.14

Time: 1845 hours

Location: 100 blk South Tower Drive

An officer received credible information about a male currently in possession of drugs. The caller told the officer the male was walking on South Tower Drive and gave a good description. The officer located the male that fit the description. The officer asked the male if he had any drugs with him and he told the officer he had heroin. The male told the officer the heroin was in his front pocket. The officer removed the drugs and arrested the male. The person who provided the initial information gave officers a written statement. The male was booked into jail for the drug possession.
