Calls of Interest

Offense: Information

Date: 03.15.12

Time: 2046 hours

Location: 14000 blk Mint Trail

A citizen called the city cell phone to report hearing noises outside of the residence. When officers arrived the caller said she and her friend were house-sitting. They had been upstairs and heard noises downstairs. A little while later they heard noises outside. The officers made an exterior and interior check of the home and found everything to be secured. The caller was told to call police again if she needed anything. The officers resumed patrol.

Offense: Suspicious Vehicle

Date: 03.16.12

Time: 0232 hours

Location: 13800 blk San Pedro

An officer observed a suspicious vehicle parked on the side of a closed business. The officer pulled into the parking lot, activated the emergency lights, and approached the vehicle. The subjects said they had stopped because they needed to use the restroom. The officer detected a strong odor of alcohol emitting from both individuals. Further investigation determined that the subjects were not in a condition to safely operate the vehicle. The vehicle owner was allowed to contact a friend to get them home safely. The friend arrived on scene and took custody of the individuals and the vehicle. All parties departed and the officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Suspicious Person

Date: 03.16.12

Time: 1832 hours

Location: 300 blk Limestone Creek

Officers were dispatched to the area of Tomahawk Trail and Bison Road for a suspicious male walking in the area. The officers located the male in the 300 block of Limestone Creek and contact was made with the male. The male told officers he suffers from schizophrenia but he did not appear to be a danger to himself or others. The male said he was attempting to get to Blanco Road and Oblate. An officer gave the male a courtesy ride to the intersection of Bitters Road and Blanco Road. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Assist other Agency

Date: 03.17.12

Time: 0006 hours

Location: 300 blk Sterling Browning

A Hollywood Park police officer reported that he had two male subjects running from him. The HPPD officer said the subjects had broken into a vehicle and they had run south from his location. The HCV officer assisted HPPD in searching the area for the suspects. The suspects were not found and the HCV officer resumed patrol.
