Location: 200 blk N Loop 1604 E

An officer was dispatched to assist HPPD with an assault in progress at a convenience store. Details read that a male was being assaulted by a female at the location. Upon arrival, the female had departed the location and HPPD took a report from the male. The HCV officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Disturbance

Date: 03.28.12

Time: 1550 hours

Location: 14000 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched to a local church for a disturbance. The officer arrived and contacted the female caller. The female reported she had gone to the above location to pick up a young male who is under her care. The male has mental disabilities and the female told the officer that she is his foster guardian. The female stated that the male and his girlfriend had left the church building and both were found by the dumpsters. The female told the officer this was against the rules. The female stated that she simply tried to talk to him when he ran off. The male returned to the location and told the officer that he knew he broke the rules, but he just wanted to spend time with his girlfriend. He also stated that he did not want to go home with his guardian, but would leave with his case coordinator. His case coordinator was contacted and she told the officer she would pick up the male. The guardian stayed at the location until the coordinator arrived. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Found Property
Date: 03.31.12
Time: 1407 hours
Location: 15600 blk San Pedro

A business owner called and reported he had found a black purse as well as multiple cards in the dumpster. The officer retrieved the items from the dumpster. The officer located a UTHSC school ID and attempted to contact the school to locate a phone number for the owner. The officer was unable to speak with anyone at the school because the school was closed. All items were secured in the HCVPD property room by the officer. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Information
Date: 03.31.12
Time: 1940 hours
Location: 116 Aspen Lane

An officer was arriving for work when she saw a vehicle parked beside the dumpsters in front of city hall. A resident got out of the vehicle and climbed into one of the dumpsters. The resident retrieved a barbecue grill and several other metal items out of the dumpster. The resident took the metal items and placed them in a wooded area of a residential property, next door to city hall. The officer told the resident that he needed to go get the items and place them back into the dumpster. The resident said he would be back the following day to retrieve the items. The officer informed him he had just dumped trash on someone's property and he could not leave the items there. The resident asked if he could leave the items on the city property and the officer told him he could not. The resident retrieved the items from the wooded area and placed them back into the dumpster.
