Offense: Disturbance

Date: 03.11.15 Time: 1647 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched to a local restaurant for a report of an intoxicated female at the location with a small child. The caller was afraid the female would attempt to leave the location and drive off in her condition with the child. Upon arrival, contact was made with the caller who reported the incident. The caller related he had noticed the female acting strange while in the children's play area and when she got up to go to the restroom, the caller noticed the female knock over her purse and several small wine bottles fall out of it. The caller related the female appeared to be intoxicated and he was afraid she would attempt to drive off in that condition with the child. Contact was then made with the female who was seated in a booth with the small child. While speaking with the female, the officer could see several small wine bottles in her open purse. The officer asked the female to step outside so he could talk to her more privately. They proceeded outside to the female's vehicle where she secured the small child. The officer asked the female if she had been drinking and she said no. The officer then asked the female when the last time she had anything to drink and she said, last night. The officer observed the female stumble slightly while walking and to be unsure of herself at times. The officer could detect an odor of alcoholic beverages emitting from her person. The officer advised the female of the complaint received and requested she contact someone to pick her up. The female then contacted her daughter, the child's mother, who responded to the location and took responsibility of the female.
