Location: 16400 blk Axis Trail

An officer was dispatched for a suspicious person. The officer contacted the resident who reported a female, approximately fifteen years old, wearing a black shirt and black gym shorts and was also bare footed, came to their front door and asked if she could use their Internet to contact her friend to come pick her up. She then began to act if she was hyperventilating and ran away. The officer checked the area but did not locate the girl. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Deadly Conduct-Firearm

Date: 05.06.13

Time: 1011 hours

Location: 200 blk West Bitters Road

A resident reported he had heard about 5 gunshots around 0225 hours. The resident looked outside and then went back to bed. When he awoke on the morning, he found a bullet hole in one of his windows. It appears the bullet entered through the window and penetrated a wall. The officer checked overnight police records and found that SAPD had been dispatched to the parking lot a bar located on Bitters Road. The call was for a disturbance with shots fired and a vehicle fleeing the scene. SAPD had been dispatched soon after the resident had heard the gunshots. The bar parking lot the gunshots came has been known for several violent crimes. SAPD is regularly dispatched to the bar for a variety of problems.

Offense: Possession of Marijuana

Date: 05.08.13

Time: 2215 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer was out with two individuals he came upon in a parking lot of a business. During his contact with the individuals, a female from a local restaurant came up to the car and spoke to the female in the car. The officer asked who the female was and was told she was a friend. The officer had also checked a nearby car and found marijuana in plain sight. The officer asked the female in the car if she would call her friend back out. The friend came out and the officer asked if that was her car with the open windows. The female said it was not her car and went back to the restaurant. The officer released the individuals he was originally with and continued further with the marijuana he saw in plain sight. The officer seized the marijuana and went into the restaurant. He asked the manager if he knew who the car belonged to and the manager pointed at the female who told the officer it was not her car. The officer asked her why she lied and she told him she did not want to get in trouble. The female was arrested and while in custody, admitted she sold marijuana. The female refused to say anymore. The female was booked into jail.
