Calls of Interest

Offense: Field Contact

Date: 05.13.12

Time: 0107 hours

Location: 14000 blk San Pedro

An officer was approaching the stop sign at the intersection of South Tower Drive and Winding Way. The officer observed two males walking in the grassy field near that intersection. The two males turned quickly upon seeing the patrol car and appeared to be acting in a suspicious manner. The officer made contact with the two males and requested identification. The first male stated he did not have his driver's license, but produced a student identification card. The second male also did not have a license on his person but produced a business card. Both males stated they left their apartment quickly and forgot their identification. The officer conducted a standard computer check of the males. The males stated they were playing an on-line scavenger hunt game called "Geocash" which led them to that intersection. Both parties agreed to forget the scavenger hunt and leave the area. The males were released and the officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Information

Date: 05.13.12

Time: 0434 hours

Location: 200 blk

An officer was flagged down by a male. The male reported he was hearing the sound of screaming children coming from a neighbor's barn/garage. The male said he could hear the screaming from his house on the next street over. The male had also been entering the property to check on the noises himself. The male has reported this to police on more than one occasion. The male was told to stay off of private property and to contact the police when he hears the screaming. The officer checked and confirmed that there were no children in danger.

Offense: Open Door

Date: 05.15.12

Time: 0107 hours

Location: 14600 blk San Pedro

While doing a business check, an officer found a door to a medical office had been propped open with a rock. There were no signs of forced entry. Two officers cleared the office and it appeared to be in order. A note was left for the office staff about the open door. The officers were able to secure the door. The officers resumed patrol.

Offense: Assist the Public

Date: 05.15.12

Time: 1603 hours

Location: 14800 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched for a report of a 2 year old locked inside of a car with the engine running and air conditioning on. Upon arrival, contact was made with the vehicle owner who related she had just put her 2 year old inside the car and started the engine. The female related she was then walking around to the other side of her car to put her 5 month old inside when the 2 year old got in the front seat and pushed the door locks. The female related she went inside the business to seek assistance and called Pop-A-Lock to respond. While speaking with the female, Pop-A-Lock arrived on location and opened the vehicle. The San Antonio Fire Department arrived on location to assess the child. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Burglary of a Vehicle

Date: 05.16.12

Time: 2100 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

A citizen called the city cell phone to report an unknown person or persons had broken into his truck and attempted to steal it. The officer arrived and observed the driver's side locking mechanism had been destroyed. The citizen said when he returned to his truck, the driver's door was partially open. The citizen opened the door and saw damage to the steering wheel assembly. At that time, the citizen went back inside and called the police. One piece of the steering assembly was on the front seat, the other piece was on floorboard. The officer gathered evidence from the truck and photographed the scene. The citizen attempted to start his truck, but the key would not fit into the ignition because of the damage. The citizen had his vehicle towed from the location.
