Calls of Interest

Offense: Disturbance

Date: 05.27.13

Time: 0355 hours

Location: 15600 blk San Pedro

While doing a business check, an officer saw two vehicles pull into the parking lot. As the officer approached the vehicles, the female driver of the first vehicle approached the officer. The distraught female told the officer her ex-boyfriend had been following her for quite some time and would not leave her alone. The male in the second vehicle approached the officer and stated he was following her because he was worried about her. The female use to date the male but has since moved on with her life. The female was obviously scared and did not want the male to know where she lived. The female had been released to give her a head start while the officer continued to speak to the male. After enough time had passed, the male was released and was told to leave his ex-girlfriend alone. No crime had been committed.

Offense: Burglary of a Vehicle

Date: 05.28.13

Time: 0306 hours

Location: 16400 blk Axis Trail

An officer was dispatched to a vehicle burglary. The owner reported he had entered his vehicle at approximately 0730 hours to go to work and noticed that the contents in his vehicle had been tossed around. The owner believed his vehicle had been burglarized and notified HCVPD. The owner reviewed his surveillance video after contacting HCVPD and observed an unknown person enter his vehicle. The officer watched the video surveillance footage and observed an unknown male wearing a light in color t-shirt and shorts, walk up the driveway and enter the vehicle from the passenger side door. The unknown male was seen rummaging through the vehicle at approximately 0306 hours and appeared to be scared away by an unknown noise. The video showed the unknown male return to the vehicle at approximately 0314 - 0316 hours and continued to go through the vehicle from the passenger side. No other vehicles at the residence are believed to have been burglarized. An electronic device had been stolen. The officer collected evidence and submitted it to CID. This case is under investigation.
