Time: 2229 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer observed a vehicle parked in the north side parking lot of a restaurant. Both front doors of the vehicle were wide open and the occupants were lying completely back in their seats. The officer observed the female passenger dropping trash items onto the ground. The officer approached the vehicle and made contact with the occupants. Neither female was in possession of a driver's license and both seemed very nervous. The driver provided a driver's license number to the officer. The occupant sitting in the driver's seat stated that she did not know her license number. The passenger seemed nervous, was "twitching" a lot and seemed happy but evasive. A computer check showed that both females outstanding warrants for their arrest. The driver gave the officer consent to search the vehicle. Methamphetamine was found within the vehicle. Both females were arrested on outstanding warrants and Possession of a Controlled Substance. They were both booked into jail.

A store manager called to report a male had just run out of his store and had stolen some items. The male had run out of the store and ran south on San Pedro. The male had gone into Denny's and changed his clothing to prevent capture. A citizen told the officer where the suspect had run. He was last seen running out of Denny's toward Bitters Road. The officer found the male suspect and the store manager was able to identify him. The male had dumped the stolen items in a flower bed as he ran from the location. The stolen items were recovered and the male was booked into jail for Theft.

Offense: Theft

Date: 06.14.14

Time: 1612 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

A store manager called to report a theft that had occurred the previous day. The manager told the officer that at the close of business on 06/14/2014, a ring in their inventory was found to be missing. A review of the in-store surveillance video revealed a male suspect who was in the store looking at jewelry had stolen the ring out of an unsecure jewelry cabinet and placed it in his pocket. The manager was able to provide the officer with a copy of the in-store surveillance footage of the theft. This case is under investigation.
