Calls of Interest

Offense: Burglary of a Building
Date: 06.17.12 through 06.22.12
Time: hours vary
Location: 15800 blk San Pedro

Officers have taken four reports this week for burglaries that occurred at a local storage facility. Several items were taken from the storage units. The storage units were processed for evidence and photographs were taken. These cases are under investigation and there is a person of interest.

Offense: Open Gate
Date: 06.19.12
Time: 2302 hours
Location: 13800 blk San Pedro

An officer was doing a business patrol when he found the rear gates leading to the back of a business to be open. The officer checked the area behind the business and all appeared to be in order. The back entry door was also checked and found secure. The officer closed both gates, but was not able to lock them. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Disturbance
Date: 06.21.12
Time: 1945 hours
Location: 15800 blk San Pedro

A HCV officer saw several SAPD cars parked in front of a restaurant within Hill Country Village. The officer made contact with the SAPD officers who said they were dispatched to the location for a disturbance. They told the HCV officer that two elderly males had a verbal argument and one had assaulted the other. SAPD officers said they had calmed the situation down and that both parties declined charges. It is believed the SAPD officers were dispatched because of a computer error. The HCV officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Suspicious Person

Date: 06.22.12

Time: 1940 hours

Location: 400 blk Tower Drive

Officers received a call on the city cell from a resident who reported a suspicious person at her neighbor's gate. The officers arrived at the location and contacted a male who told the officers he had permission from the homeowner to work on the key pad that was not working properly. The officers confirmed the male's story and both officers resumed patrol.
