Offense: Burglary of a Vehicle

Date: 07.07.14

Time: 1629 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer received a call on the city cell phone in reference to a Burglary of Vehicle. The officer responded and met with a business owner. The owner stated that he and his girlfriend, also an employee, left the area for lunch. Upon returning, the female parked her vehicle two doors down from his business. Both were in the office for approximately 45 minutes completing the day's business. They then secured the office and proceeded to her vehicle where they discovered the passenger side, front window had been shattered. The female noticed her purse was missing which also contained her wallet. Neither could recall seeing any person(s) hanging around the area or acting suspicious. This case is under investigation.
