Location: 100 blk Cherokee Lane

A resident called to alert police about possible mail theft in the area. The resident related yesterday, she was outside her residence and observed the USPS carrier stop outside her residence and deliver the mail. The resident said she did not go retrieve the mail until the following morning. When she did, she noticed her mailbox was open and there was no mail inside. The resident was advised to alert the post office and check her credit report for any suspicious activity. Prior to completing this report, a second resident flagged down the officer while on patrol. The resident reported while she and a friend were out for their morning walk in HCV, they observed numerous mailboxes in the area of Hill Country Lane and Tower Drive that were all left open. The resident thought this was unusual and feared someone might be stealing mail. The resident was informed of the earlier report taken and given the same advice as was given to the first caller.
