Offense: Suspicious Person

Date: 07.29.14

Time: 1302 hours

Location: 200 blk West Bitters Road

Officers were dispatched to a residence for what appeared to be an intoxicated male who had jumped the fence and went onto the property. Upon arrival, the suspicious male was observed on the property standing next to a weed eater and various other tools. The male was noticeably intoxicated and not making sense with his words. Officers asked the male to exit the property on South Tower Drive while officers attempted to contact the homeowner. The male was reluctant and had to be handcuffed for officer safety. The male would not walk on his own and continued to argue that he was allowed to be there and the officers were trespassing. The male attempted to pull away from the officer at which time he was pulled to the ground. The officer told the male that if he continued to resist, he would be arrested. The male said he would comply, so the officer assisted him back onto his feet. The male walked with the officer to the patrol car while cursing and yelling at the officer. The male was not making sense and it was hard to understand exactly what he was saying. Officers were eventually able to obtain a phone number for his supervisor. The supervisor was called and verified he had dropped the male off at the location earlier in the day. The officer informed the supervisor of the male's intoxicated condition and asked that he return to pick him up. The supervisor arrived at the location and left with the employee.
