Offense: Field Contact

Date: 08.28.16

Time: 0237 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer observed a vehicle stopped in the parking lot of a closed business. The officer could see a male seated in the driver's seat. The officer contacted the male who was asleep and displayed obvious signs of intoxication. The male related that he and his passenger had gone out to a club and were trying to return to Fort Sam Houston. The male stated that he started to feel ill and pulled over, at which point he fell asleep. The male began to vomit uncontrollably. The officer made contact with passenger who also displayed obvious signs of intoxication. The officer obtained information from both males who related that they were Army reservist attending a medical school. The officer contacted the Fort Sam Houston police who made contact with the 232nd Medical Battalion, where the males are assigned. A unit representative contacted the unit First Sergeant. The First Sergeant contacted the officer and related that she was sending another unit representative to pick up the males. The officer stayed with the males until they were picked up by a military representative.

Date: 08.30.16

Time: 1935 hours

Location: 200 blk Crest Trail

A resident called the city cell phone in reference to gambling equipment found on his property at the end of the 200 block of Crest Trail. The officer arrived and observed a damaged gambling machine on its side at the entrance of the lot. The machine appeared to have been vandalized in order to remove its contents. Upon further inspection, the officer found a red envelope containing a one dollar bill. The gambling machine was taken in as evidence and tagged.

Offense: Assist other Agency

Date: 09.02.16

Time: 2251 hours

Location: 200 blk N Loop 1604 E

An officer was dispatched to assist HPPD with a drunk, naked male at a convenience store. The HCV officer arrived at location and remained as a cover officer. The individual was sitting down and non-combative. The officer remained at location until the individual was picked up and taken home by a friend. Once the individual was picked up, the officer departed location and resumed patrol.

Offense: Possession of a Controlled Substance

Date: 09.03.16

Time: 0420 hours

Location: 13800 blk San Pedro

Officers observed a vehicle come off the access road and drive behind a closed business. The officers approached the vehicle which was occupied by a male and a female. They both seemed very nervous. Upon doing a computer check, the male was found to be driving without a license. The vehicle was going to be impounded. Upon doing a vehicle inventory, they found methamphetamine and marijuana in the driver side of the vehicle. The male also had drug paraphernalia in his possession. The male was arrested on drug charges and the female was released at the scene.
