A store employee reported the suspect entered the store and asked to use her cell phone to call VIA Transit Bus. The male suspect wanted to find out when the next bus will be arriving. She let the suspect use the store's cell phone to call. She walked away from the cash register area to put product in the ice machine. Her back was facing the suspect. While filling the machine, she observed the suspect's reflection in the glass window. The suspect picked up the glass tip jar and dropped approximately $2.00 in quarters in his right hand.
