Location: 14200 blk San Pedro

A female called City Hall to report that an unknown person(s) had used her Visa card at a local electronics store. The female stated that the unknown person(s) purchased $391.74 worth of electronics. The items purchased included a wall mount enclosure for $199, a tablet mount for $60, an HD cable switch for $89.99, and a magnetic phone socket for $11.99. The female states that she did not consent for anyone to use her card/account. She further stated that she had her card and was using it at two different locations when the unknown suspect(s) was using what is believed to be a cloned card at the electronics store. The female said she has not lost her card and only had one card issued to her. The female does not know how or where her card information was cloned. This case is under investigation.
