A HPPD officer was dispatched to a local hotel for a report of a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot. A HCV officer volunteered to assist because the HPPD had only one unit on duty at that time. The computer system read that an occupied vehicle had parked next to an unoccupied vehicle. The person(s) inside the vehicle never exited their vehicle and soon departed the parking lot. While the HPPD officer was inside talking with the clerk, the HCV officer drove around the parking lot to see if any vehicles had been broken into. The officer did not observe any signs of criminal activity. The HCV officer briefed the HPPD officer and resumed patrol.
