Time: 1642 hours

Location: Tower Drive @ Marmon Ridge

An officer was dispatched to assist EMS with an injured male who had fallen off of his bicycle. The officer arrived and found the male in the middle of the roadway and unable to move due to a severely injured hip. Officers provided traffic control until EMS arrived and was able to transport the male to an emergency room. The officers resumed patrol.

Offense: Driving While Intoxicated

Date: 11.06.13

Time: 2157 hours

Location: US 281 N @ Bitters Road

Officers noticed a vehicle that was high-centered on a curb. The officers went to the vehicle and found a male attempting to get his car off of the curb. The back wheels were off the ground and were spinning. The male told officers that he had not seen the curb. The officers believed the male was intoxicated and had failed to negotiate the turnaround. The male was asked to perform a series of field sobriety tests and he failed those tests. SAPD arrived to work the crash. The HCV officers transported the male downtown for processing. The male gave a breath sample and the results were twice the legal limit. The male was booked into jail for Driving While Intoxicated. The officers resumed patrol.

Date: 11.09.13

Time: 0416 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched to a local restaurant for a male complaining of not being able to feel his legs. The officer arrived and could not find anyone in need of assistance. SAFD/EMS was already on scene and related they were not able to find the male either. The dispatcher was able to call the male back at which point he told the dispatcher he had found a friend to take him to the hospital. All responding agencies returned to service.

Offense: Suspicious Vehicle

Date: 11.09.13

Time: 1932 hours

Location: 15200 blk San Pedro

A business owner called the city cell phone to report a suspicious vehicle parked behind his business. The male in the vehicle had parked in the wrong parking lot. His intention was to park at the parking lot of the adjacent business but the lots did not connect. Officers did not find the male had done anything wrong. The officers resumed patrol.
