Calls of Interest

Offense: Theft of Service

Date: 11.27.12

Time: 1025 hours

Location: 15700 blk San Pedro

An officer was contacted by the assistant manager of a local oil change business. The manager told the officer that gold Chevrolet Avalanche had just left the location without paying for the oil change. The officer did a computer check on the provided license plate which showed to match the description given by the manager. The manager described the driver as an elderly male. The male had driven away, heading southbound on US 281. This case is under investigation.

Offense: Assist other Agency

Date: 11.27.12

Time: 1743 hours

Location: Voight Drive @ Fleetwood

An officer assisted Hollywood Park with a 911 hang-up in the area. HPPD only had one officer on duty and was tied up handling a burglary. The HCV officer arrived at the location and checked the surrounding area, but was unable to locate anyone. The officer resumed patrol.

Offense: Suspicious Vehicle

Date: 11.28.12

Time: 2019 hours

Location: 100 blk Village Circle

A resident called to report a white Ford F-150 had been parked in front of her house for 30 minutes. When the truck left, the resident called and asked officers to check on it. Officers checked the area, but were unable to locate the truck. It is unknown why the resident didn't call police sooner.

Offense: Suspicious Person

Date: 11.30.12

Time: 1720 hours

Location: 200 blk Tomahawk Trail

An officer received a call from a resident who reported there was a solicitor who had just departed her property. Upon the officer's arrival, contact was made with solicitor who was not aware of the ordinance prohibiting soliciting in HCV. The male was given a courtesy ride to the intersection of W. Bitters and West Ave. The officer resumed patrol.
