A HPPD officer requested the assistance of a female HCV officer to search a female he had taken into custody. The female told officers she had something in her pants that she was holding for someone else. The female HCV officer looked down the front of the female's pants and found a 5 inch glass smoking pipe. In the female's pant pocket was a plastic baggy which contained a white powdery substance. When the HCV officer ask the female if she had anything else on her, she shook the right leg of her pants and a 9 mm bullet fell to the ground. The female also had a 9 mm bullet in her left front pocket. When the female took off her shoes there were three more bullets in her right shoe. The female HCV officer followed HPPD back to their police department so that she could make sure the female had nothing else on her person. At the police station, the female HCV officer did a more thorough search of the female and did not find any more contraband.

Offense: Suspicious Vehicle

Date: 12.17.12

Time: 0004 hours

Location: 14000 blk San Pedro

While doing a business check, an officer saw a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot of a closed business. The officer made contact with the female driver. The female was crying and stated that her son and daughter -in-law had a big fight. The female said she became afraid and left the home. While talking with the officer, the female's sister called her and said she had called SAPD to go check on the fighting couple. When released, the female said she was going back to the home to wait for SAPD to arrive.

Offense: Disturbance

Date: 12.19.12

Time: 0309 hours

Location: 100 blk Pin Oak Forest

A resident called to report an intoxicated female at his front gate. According to the resident, the female had been a guest in his home. When the female became intoxicated and belligerent, he told her to leave. The female was found at the corner of Pin Oak Forest and Hidden View. The female was sitting on the ground on the side of the street. The officer asked her what had happened, and she confirmed the same story. The female had called for a ride prior to the officer's arrival. For her safety, she was given a courtesy ride to City Hall to wait for her ride. Officers waited with her until her ride arrived and took her home. No further action taken.

Time: 0248 hours

Location: 100 blk Pin Oak Forest

An officer observed a large oak tree, uprooted and lying across half of the roadway. The tree had been blown over by heavy winds. The tree was so large that there was nothing the officers could do at that time. The resident called in the morning and informed City Hall that the tree would be removed as soon as possible.
